

MARCH 21, 2021

INTERIOR
DESIGN[®]

homes

bold moves

1

2

5

6

4

3

8

7

1

2

Fabien Cappello for Hem

product Offcut
standout The Mexico-based French designer reimagines colored sheet-glass offcuts from his workshop as artful patterns on a collection of 15 one-of-a-kind plates. hem.com

Mathias Steen Rasmussen for Gubi

product MR01 Initial standout A woven-rope chair originally conceived for the Dane's own home is now his first production piece, with an oak or walnut frame constructed sans screws. gubi.com

3

4

Victoria Yakusha of Faina

product Soniah
standout A series of floor lamps from the Ukrainian designer derive their forms from sunflow-ers and are handcrafted from ztista, a blend including clay, paper, wood chips, and straw. yakusha.design

3

4

Alain Gilles for Faïencerie de Charolles and Fermob

product Fat & Slim standout The Belgian creator produces a side table duo sporting chubby ceramic bases topped by ultra-thin steel discs, thus showcasing the expertise of both French design houses. fdfrance.com, fermob.com

PORTRAIT: L. ADAM MIZESMAN; PRODUCT: 3. VOVIA KLEYBER

5

Fiona Barratt Campbell of FBC London

product London
standout The interior and product designer's handmade-to-order sofa with chocolate-brown oak base comes with a generously deep seat and curved back. fbc-london.com

6

Lucy Penfield of Lucy Penfield Collection

products Playtime, Onward, and Celestial Mod standout The Minneapolis-based interior designer translates her own collaged and painted art into graphic textiles then sewn into pillows in Los Angeles. Through Missio Home. missiohome.com

7

Jomo Tariku of Jomo Furniture

product Borattii
standout The Ethiopian-American artist and industrial designer's Baltic birch plywood stool/end table takes inspiration from sleep head-rests in Ethiopia's Oromia region and offers height adjustment via a clever dowel. jomofurniture.com

8

Faye Toogood of Toogood

product Dough
standout The British design doyenne debuts her first tabletop collection comprised of a pudgy (think rising dough) earthenware mug, vase, bowl, centerpiece, and platter in charcoal or cream. t-o-o-g-o-o-d.com